ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Bob Doom is a free fan-comic made for the love of a ridiculous idea and not to profit from Marvel Comics' copyrighted characters. Those who don't pay tribute to our corporate overlords face disintegration.

In this vein, the writer would like to pay homage to the inspirational talent of Steve Gerber, whose work he was reading in 2017 when this concept was first envisioned, not knowing that over 25 years prior, Gerber had already created a character called 'Bob Doom' who was also a dentist. It would, likewise, be amiss not to mention the writing of Mark Russell which was also a profound influence.

The artist would like to thank Max Bemis and Michael Walsh for showing him again the funny side of Marvel, and comedian, John Hodgman, for THE COMPLETE WORLD KNOWLEDGE.

STATE-SANCTIONED LETTERS

Dear Creators, I can confirm, under no duress or threat of moloceulisation, that Bob Doom is the greatest work of literature and art ever concieved by sentient beings or slugs.
Tony Starch, Doomstadt

To The Editor, Your lack of recognition that Reed Richards, (better known by his alias of Mr Mundane), is anything other than a charlatan that leeches from the greatness of minds such as Doom is frankly unacceptable. And I shall be using my right to free speech as an everyday Joe, coffee drinking, red necked, blue blooded, Uncle Sam, slack jawed yokel to reverse the besmirching of Latveria... nay, the world's, brightest star. Yours in Hatred, [Insert pithy pseudonym that will cut Richards to his core. Something about limp appendages ?]
